

North Coast National Exhibition

Presents the 2010

BACHELOR OF THE YEAR

Could you be the Inaugural 2010 North Coast National
Bachelor of the Year?

Are you single? Are you a member of a local community group or sporting club? Are you over 18?

If yes, you could be the 2010 winner of the North Coast National Show Bachelor of the Year and an awesome package of prizes for you and your club ranging upwards of $2500

Tell us about yourself in the spaces provided on your entry form and what makes you stand out from the rest.

12 finalists will be chosen from clubs throughout the region and will compete at the NCN 21—23 October 2010 at Lismore Show
Ground

Win $2500 for your Sporting Club

The Lismore Show Ground will be host to the inaugural North Coast National Bachelor of the Year competition at the North Coast National Exhibition on 21 - 23 October 2010

This will be an opportunity for local community clubs and sporting organisations to participate in this community event with the potential for $2500 in prize money going to the club of the winning entrant.

All entrants will have the opportunity to be selected by the public via an online voting system that will determine the 12 finalists that will compete at the 2010 North Coast National Exhibition.

Entry forms can be found via the website at www.lismoreshow.org.au and through your local club
